GOVERNMENT'S PROPOSED
VOIR DIRE QUESTIONS

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney, Jan W. Sharp, and hereby submits these proposed voir dire questions in anticipation of the August 28, 2018, jury trial in the above-captioned matter:

Question 1:

Is anyone a member, or was formerly a member, of any organization that advocates for or against firearms ownership or firearms use?

Follow-up questions to Question 1 for any positive responses:

- What organization did you belong to?
- When were you a member of the organization?
- If you are no longer a member, why did you stop being a member?

Question 2:

If the defendant represents himself during the trial, does anyone believe that they will hold the Government to a higher burden than instructed by this Court?

Question 3:

If the defendant represents himself, would you expect the defendant to follow the same rules of court as any other attorney participating in the trial, including the Government's attorneys?

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff
